ADDITIONAL REMARKS

(Use this sheet for inserting any additional information that is of historical value.)

when we left New Jersey and set sail for France. The ocean was big, our raft to cross Bent
I enjoyed it for it was something new for me. But when I got to France I was disappointed about the country it rained just about every day
we slept in the rain all night in mud. Hot and dirty with ~~cooties~~ gee was is hell.

But thank God we did then German follow up so they will never call us junk grabbers any more.

The air planes above us was nice when they threw Bombs in our face. But they were up to high to do any damage only stick dirt in our face.

I was first man from Cass County, Indiana to be inducted into the service under the selective service law.

2:15 PM Last man to be discharged from the regiment, 325th Field Artillery, when demobilized at Camp Sherman, Ohio, Mar 1, 1919

325th Field Artillery left Camp Taylor, Ky. June 29, 1918 and moved into camp at Artillery Range, West Point, Ky. same night.

Entrained at West Point, Ky. Sept. 3rd, 1918 arriving at Camp Mills, Long Island on Sept. 5th, 1918.

Embarked on S.S. CANADA Sept. 8th, 1918 and sailed Sept. 9th, 1918.

Arrived Glasgow, Scotland, Sept. 21, 1918 and immediately entrained for Winchester, England, arriving Camp Winall Downs on the 22nd.

On account of English trains going on strike for few days, regiment was obliged to hike to Southampton, 18 miles, with full packs, where American transport was boarded night of Sept. 26th.

Arrived Le Havre, France morning of Sept. 27th, 1918, was there one night, then boarded box cars for two day's ride to Camp de Souge, France, about ten miles from Bordeaux. Balance of camps as stated on other pages.

ADDITIONAL REMARKS

(Use this sheet for inserting any additional information that is of historical value.)

I was commissioned a 2nd Lieut. at Camp Jackson, S. Car. June 1, 1918 and on July 2, 1918 was ordered to the School of Fire, at Ft. Sill, Okla.

Graduated from School of Fire, Sept. 15, 1918 and was ordered to the 170th F.A. Brigade then being formed at West Point, Ky.

I was appointed Regt. Telephone Officer ~~and~~ ~~Trained~~ of the 67th F.A. and trained with that Regt. until the Armistice was signed. Dec. 10 was transferred to Camp Henry, Knox, Ky and discharged there Dec. 20, 1918.

The 67th F.A. was commanded by Col. A. L. P. Sands, an old Regular Army Officer who had gone overseas with the 1st Division (Regulars). He took part in all major operations up til the 1st of Sept. 1918 when he was promoted to Col. and sent back to the U.S. to take command of the 67th F.A.
